EMANCIPATE!

Lo ! Looms a morning long foretold!

It dawns in blood-bedabbled gold, 'Mid awe, and shame, and prayer, and wonder, The morn that ends a night more dread Than that whose break showed Misraim's dead, And twice ten thousand quenchless rays, In awful, unresisted blaze, Write broad above day's burning gate. EMANCIPATE! EMANCIPATE!! The day is here! The hour is high! This, this must be our battle-cry ! None else avails, nor ought, nor can, While manhood is denied to man! God wills it from eternal years, We learn it slow, through stripes and tears; But learn at last, or learn we must In deeper agony and dust, God's mandate to our guilty State, EMANCIPATE! EMANCIPATE!! Deep from ten thousand thousand hearts The gathering echo swells and starts! Hearts whose best life is wrung and riven; Hearts whose best blood like rain is given; Hearts wise by all the woes they feel; Hearts true as trebly-tempered steel; They gave their bravest, day by day, To worse than Juggernaut a prey; And now they cry, in holy bate, EMANCIPATE! EMANCIPATE!!

Down with the wretch who dares withstand This sole salvation of our land! Who dares, what time her cannon roar, What time her veins their life-blood pour, To shield, through all ber mortal strife, The Hydra that assaults her life! Contemns the aid Heaven long since chose, And foils his country, not her foes! Down with the wretch! or small or great!

EMANCIPATE! EMANCIPATE!! Dare to do right because 'tie right ! Dare to be read by God's own sight! Count not false friends, nor treacherous foca Who emites with God what powers oppose? Strike he who dare! Strike he who can! A blow with heaven! A blow for man! Strike grandly in this hour sublime

A blow to ring through endless time ! Strike! for the listening ages wait! EMANCIPATE! EMANCIPATE!! G. L. T.

Winchester Threatened Again-The Secre Creek Broken up.

From Our Special Correspondent, HARPER's FERRY, July 15, 1862. The aspect of affairs in the vicinity of Winchester and throughout that section of the Valley of the Shenandoah is very unfavorable, and fears are entertained that we shall soon have trouble. In consequence of the threatening appearance of matters at Winchester, the stores and all other valuables of the army have been safely removed here by way of the Potomac and Winchester Railroad.

Various rumors are affeat in regard to the move ments of the enemy, and it is reported here that our pickets were driven in below Winchester last night. In anticipation of danger, the telegraph office at that place has been removed over a mile from the town. near the fortifications. The friends of the South here and at Martineburg are "acting as if they had heard good news," and express their confidence that the Rebels will make a raid into the Valley as far as Winchester before many days.

conrage and patriotism have won for him the admiration and confidence of his countrymen. He was in the battle of Bull Run, and took part in the fight at Yorktown and Fair Oaks, where he was distinguished for coolness and intrepidity. Lieut.-Col. Andross has had experience in the camp and in the field. He served his country in the buttle of Bi Bethel. Adjutant Steams has been associated wi the line, whose names we cannot mention, have see and won renown in several recent battles.

The regiment has the maximum number of ten-companies, all of which are nearly completed. An officer has been left at Brattleboro, who will recruit the regiment to the military standard of 1,046 men, a work that will soon be accomp shed.

These Vermonters are dressed in the United States

tured a large number of persons, who were afterward paroled. After the battle our troops buried 110 rebels on the field. Our loss was 8 killed-among them Capt. Slocum of the 11th Wisconsinand 32 wounded. Major Elenden of the 1st Indiana Cavalry was seriously injured. The Robels had no artillery, which accounts for their heavy loss, as compared with ours. Notwithstanding their long and forced marches, Gen. Curtis's army is in good condition. When they arrived at Helena they had but three days' supplies.

These Vermonters are dressed in the United States regulation uniform, of blue caps, dark-blue jackets, and sixty-eight sible caps, and so full complement of camp equipage, consisting of baggage wagons, ambulances, thirty-eix wall tents, and sixty-eight Sibley tents, and each mun has a Belgian ride. On the eve of the departure of the remyiment, Gov. Holbrook presented to it a spleadid stand of colors. With scarcely an exception the men comprising this regiment show great physical health and strength, and great power of endurance.
